Men's Silk-lined Sack Suits Made to Order, for $26.50

This offering of luxuriously Silk-lined Suits is made to more broadly introduce Wanamaker Custom Tailoring to well-dressed men. The silks to be used are the best tailoring silks that are made; and we have provided new Spring fabrics for about a thousand suits, in qualities such as we regularly make up at $35 and $40. There are forty-seven different patterns to select from, in the popular grays, browns and fancy blues, in worsteds, chevrons, cassimeres and serges.

These suits will be made up in single-breasted sack coat style, with silk lining, in the same excellent manner as though you paid the regular prices—and fit and satisfaction guaranteed, of course.

Dainty & Elegant Imported Robes Embroidered and Lace-Trimmed Are Given Much Lower Prices Today

You have probably seen many of these exquisite Robe Patterns on display in the cases of our new Dress Goods Salon. They are our own importations of the present season. You know we brought over, vastly larger numbers of these fine things this year, because of our broader space for display; and now we want to sell them while you still have the full season ahead in which to wear and enjoy them.

Women who exclaimed about their beauty may have forgone the pleasure of possession because of the well-deserved prices they bore. Now all compunctions about extravagance may disappear, with the prices reduced thirty dollars on some robes, twenty-five, twenty, fifteen and ten on others, and four dollars taken off the price of the most inexpensive patterns. And this, just at the time when you most want these beautiful gowns made up.

The materials are Pongette muslin, Swiss muslin and fine linen, in white, light blue, pink, lavender and champagne color; some embroidered, others trimmed with lace; some with both in combination.

Prices range from $14 Robes, now at $10, up to an exquisitely embroidered French Muslin Robe, also elaborately trimmed with lace, that has been reduced from $95 to $65. With delightful variety at easy price-steps between.

Dress Goods Salon, Second floor, Broadway, Old Building.

Pleasant Music Twice Daily in the Auditorium

A particularly enjoyable program has been arranged for today's concert, at 11 and 2:30, in the Auditorium. Numbers for the Angelus and the Organ will be rendered by Mr. P. K. VAN YORX and Mr. ARTHUR DEWEY, respectively; and Mr. FREEMAN WRIGHT, baritone, will sing. All welcome.

Straw Mattings

The Foundation of Cool, Artistic Summer Furnishing

A clean, cool floor-covering is the necessary basis for the attractive furnishing of the Summer home. Most useful and least expensive, for this important service, is the Straw Matting, from China if you want best service, from Japan if you want more artistic effect.

Long experience has taught us where to find the most durable qualities as well as the handsomest patterns. There is LIFE to the mattings we are now showing—freshness which means good wear. And the variety was never so great—more than two thousand rolls being here at the present time.

Rolls of forty yards range in price from $6 to $20 a roll.

Colonial Rugs have their own summer attractiveness. At the sign of "Ye Old-fashioned Rug Shoppe," a room on the fifth floor of the new Wanamaker Building, especially devoted to these goods, may be found the Shaliki, Old Homestead, Betsy Ross, Peggy Shippen, Martha Washington, Old-time Braided Rugs and Hook Rugs. Of many of these styles we only have one of a kind, as we procure a few at a time woven among the hills of Pennsylvania and Vermont, where we can find them.

Prices on the Old Homestead Rugs, $1 to $9.75. Sizes 30 x 60 inches to 9 x 12 feet. Shaliki Rugs, $3 to $27. Sizes 30x90 inches to 9x12 feet. Fifth floor, New Building.
